Presently working as Assistant Professor in Govt. College Banjar Distt- kullu (H.P). It's rare that one gets a chance to work and reciprocate for the people and the place which has given us so much. The zeal to take GC Banjar to its height thus resides in my heart and soul. A great teacher is the one who like a student constantly learns and thus enlightens millions of minds. I am a fortunate as I am blessed with an inquisitive mind which compels me always to search after truth. Thus with a rational mind I have unearthed various areas of research. I have to my credit many research papers and participation in various seminars.
