Richa Ahluwalia, Asstt Professor in the department of English posted at GC Banjar. The place where I am sojourned is in the lap of a beautiful hamlet. Fortunate to be in the teaching profession I enjoy the prospect of erasing all the delusions of my students with logic and reason. I have garnered the eligibility to be a Professor in the college by clearing the prestigious exam – NET. I am an MA and MPhil from the HP University. Also pursuing my PhD from HPU which is near completion. Besides I have done my BA in English honours and secured the first position from the most coveted institute of Himachal Pradesh – St Bede’s College for women. Harbours an obdurate and ardent zeal for teaching which is inherent in my blood as I come from a family of teachers. I have actively worked for the upliftment of the college by contributing in various committees like the Library committee, Magazine committee, Cultural committee and Sexual harassment committee. Also attended the Induction training programme organised by SCERT in Solan. Thus blessed to be a part of intelligentsia which is the teacher’s Community.

Other Activities :

1. Participated in a one day webinar on Role of English Language and Literature after NEP 2020 jointly organised by GAP and ELT@1
2. Conducted a 10 day online program on Professional communication and Soft skills and delivered lectures to the students of GC Banjar and GC Haripur.
3. Attended the Induction training programme organised by SCERT in Solan in 2019.

Work Experience :

1. Worked as Asstt Professor at Dr. YS Parmar University of Horticulture and Forestry from 2009 to 2012
2. Worked as School Lecturer at GSSS Diyar Kullu from 2013 to 2018.
