

Dr. Yog Raj

Holding the post of Assistant Professor in Public Administration, I have been lending my services to this prestigious institution GC Banjar for the past seven years. My aptitude for research compelled me to procure the PhD degree in my arena of choice - Administration of rural development. I did my Post Graduation in Public Administration from HPU and have to my credit a Gold medal for excelling in my field of study.

To enhance and update my potentialities with the modern innovations I have gone through various trainings and courses like Induction, Orientation and Refresher programmes at HRD Centre Hpu Shimla. Also attended a multidisciplinary course on Indian Heritage and Human values.

Besides I have always enthusiastically contributed my worth for the development of the college by participating in the college activities. I have worked in d committees like controller of examination, Prize distribution, Career guidance, NSS advisory, Development and Discipline Committee.
