

Patron's Message

Dear Alumni,
Greetings from the College.

If you are reading this then ... Congratulations! You are at the right place. This is the new page of the Government College Banjar Old Students' Association. Yes, the official page. This is yet another way of reaching out to a special set of different people who excel in what they do and who serve to make a better world.

You remember the special times you had in College, right? And over time, you tend to savour and sometimes forget the past. This page is dedicated to all the former students of the College and for everyone to re-connect with each other, with your seniors, your roommates, the ones who got you into trouble as well as the ones who stood with you when you got into trouble. This is a page and a place when you can get in touch and stay in touch. So go ahead and connect with the past and the present. Find out how the college is doing now. There is so much to find out and you can do most of it through this page.

The other alternative is to land up in College.

Welcome and enjoy!

Dr. Deepak Kumar Sharma
Principal GC Banjar.
